Co-funded by the European Union

Overview

Vera Lucke, IN-GLOBAL project coordinator
March 2023

BOLOGNA PROCESS

Launched with the Bologna Declaration of 1999

Key missions of the Bologna reform:

- build the necessary trust for successful learning mobility, cross-border academic cooperation and the mutual recognition of study periods and qualifications earned abroad
- enhance the quality and relevance of learning and teaching
- provide a forum for dialogue with neighbouring countries regarding higher education reforms and questions related to shared academic principles

EUROPEAN HIGHER EDUCATION AREA (EHEA)

49 member countries:

- implement common structural reforms
  - common key values
  - develop shared tools
- to increase staff and students' mobility and facilitate employability

EHEA

3 key commitments:

- introduce a three-cycle higher education system
- ensure the mutual recognition of qualifications and learning periods abroad completed at other universities
- implement a system of quality assurance, to strengthen the quality and relevance of learning and teaching

Support structures:

- Bologna Follow-Up Group (BFUG)
- BFUG Board
- BFUG Secretariat
- Coordination Groups, Thematic Peer Groups and Working Groups

BOLOGNA FOLLOW-UP GROUP (BFUG)

Working structure composed by:

- 49 countries
- European Commission
- Consultative members

Supports the Bologna Process in-between the Ministerial Conferences:

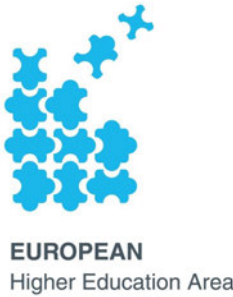

- overseeing the implementation of the Ministerial Communiqués
- developing the Bologna Process

Ministerial conferences every two or three years:

- Assess progress within the EHEA
- Decide on future steps

IN-GLOBAL PROJECT

- Enhances Global Dialogue between the EHEA and other world regions and supports Coordination Group on Global Policy Dialogue
- Promotes activities on higher education policy and enhances communication
- Updates contact lists for other world regions
- Investigates in perception of Bologna Process in other regions (planned for early summer 2023)
